

Delta State University

Summer II 2026 Course Offerings

| College of Business and Aviation                 |                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Aviation                                         |                                                      |
| CAV 373: Human Factors in Aviation                      | CAV 630: Aviation's Regulatory Environment           |
| CAV 374: Code of Federal Regulations                    | CAV 680 Advanced Transportation Systems              |
| CAV 390: Instrument Flight Instructor Ground and Flight | CAV 690: Writing in Aviation Business Administration |
| Business                                         |                                                      |
| CIS 235: Microcomputer Applications II                  | MGT 327: Human Resources Management                  |
| CIS 300: Management Information Systems                 | MGT 484: Organizational Behavior                     |
| CIS 311: Applications Development                       | MGT 487: Business Analytics                          |
| CIS 492: Special Topics in Computer Information Systems | MGT 608: Nonprofit Program Planning & Evaluation     |
| CIS 600: Management Information Systems                 | MGT 695: Strategic Management                        |
| MBA 535: Economics/Marketing Theory                   | MKT 300: Marketing Principles                        |
| DMI                                              |                                                      |
| DMI 305: Applied Guitar*                                | DMI 306: Applied Bass Guitar*                        |

| Delta Center for Culture &amp; Learning  |                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| RRS 492: Special Topic: Rural/Regional Studies* | RRS 592: Special Topic: Rural/Regional Studies* |
| RRS 592: Most Southern Place on Earth*          |                                                 |

*Face-to-Face Courses

**Hybrid Courses

Delta State University

Summer II 2026 Course Offerings

| College of Education, Arts, and Humanities           |                                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Art                                                  |                                                                                   |
| ART 212: Art Appreciation                                   | ART 361: Art Content and Techniques                                               |
| Criminal Justice                                     |                                                                                   |
| CRJ 426: Victimology                                        | CRJ 575: Family Violence                                                          |
| CRJ 475: Family Violence                                    | CRJ 592: Special Topics in Criminal Justice                                       |
| Education                                            |                                                                                   |
| AED 610: Basic Leadership/Management Skill                  | CUR 592: Classroom Management & Culture                                           |
| AED 704: Resource Management                                | CUR 592: Assessment & Evaluation                                                  |
| CEL 336: Survey of Social Studies                           | CUR 608: Historical Foundations of Educational Thought and Curriculum Methodology |
| CEL 611: Classroom Management                               | CUR 703: Dynamic Leadership for Curriculum and Assessment                         |
| CEL 612: Development, Assessment & Evaluation               | CUR 711: Instructional Strategies For K-12 Learning                               |
| CRD 628: Reading/Writing Across the Curriculum              | CUR 739: Seminar in Higher Education                                              |
| CSP 340: Survey of Special Education and Inclusive Teaching | CUR 853: Teaching in Higher Education                                             |
| CSP 348: Collaborative Partnership in Inclusive Education   | EDL 628: Leadership Practices III                                                 |
| CSP 383: Including Students w/ Developmental Disabilities   | EDL 728: Educational Leadership Practices III                                     |
| CSP 384: Including Students w/ Learning Disabilities        | ELR 605: Methods of Educational Research & Statistics                             |
| CSP 546: Advanced Survey of Exceptional Children            | ELR 701: Research for Educational Practitioners                                   |
| CUR 592: Instructional Planning & Delivery                  | ELR 890: Dissertation                                                             |
| CUR 592: Literacy Development                               | EPY 601: Psychology of Learning                                                   |
| Humanities and Social Sciences                       |                                                                                   |
| COM 202: Interpersonal Communication                        | HIS 202: United States History 1877 to Present                                    |
| ENG 102: English Composition II                             | HIS 652: Topics in American History                                               |
| ENG 206: Introduction to World Literature                   | MUS 114: Music In American Culture                                                |
| HIS 104: World History 1500 to Present                      |                                                                                   |
| Psychology                                           |                                                                                   |
| PSY 101: General Psychology                                 |                                                                                   |

*Face-to-Face Courses

**Hybrid Courses

Delta State University

Summer II 2026 Course Offerings

| College of Nursing, Health, and Sciences                                                 |                                                                   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Counseling                                                                               |                                                                   |
| CED 770: Special Topics: Intro to Counseling                                                    |                                                                   |
| Mathematics and Sciences                                                                 |                                                                   |
| CHE 110: The Chemical World                                                                     | MAT 110: College Algebra Recitation                               |
| MAT 103: Quantitative Reasoning                                                                 | MAT 111: Quantitative Reasoning Recitation                        |
| MAT 104: College Algebra                                                                        | MAT 231: Geometry, Measurement, & Probability                     |
| Social Work                                                                              |                                                                   |
| SWO 101: Volunteering in Community                                                              | SWO 412: System Responses to Child Maltreatment                   |
| SWO 302: Understanding Rural Communities                                                        | SWO 512: System Responses to Child Maltreatment                   |
| Speech and Hearing Sciences                                                              |                                                                   |
| SHS 362: Basic American Sign Language II                                                        |                                                                   |
| Sport and Movement Sciences                                                              |                                                                   |
| HSE 439: School Health Instruction                                                              | PER 464: Senior Seminar in HPER                                   |
| HSE 445: Consumer Health                                                                        | PER 484: Motor Development/Motor Learning                         |
| HSE 460: Drug Use and Abuse                                                                     | PER 600: Introduction to Research in Sports and Human Performance |
| PER 360: Clinical Experience in Exercise Science*                                               | PER 602: Risk Management in Sports                                |
| PER 391: Organization and Administration of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Programs | PER 670: Facilities/Event Management                              |

*Face-to-Face Courses

**Hybrid Courses